Blood Tests

The state fight against syphilis comes to Coffee County next week. A state law The state fight against syphilis comes to requires that all persons between the ages Entered as second class matter July 18, 1905, at of 14 and 50 take a blood test and stations the Postoffice at Elba, Alabama, under the Act are being set up as outlined in an ad in this week's Clipper.

The campaign against syphilis has made $1.50 marked progress in counties where tests 75 have been run but has been hampered by the "hush hush" attitude toward syphilis $2.00 and the embarrassment of taking a blood $1.00 test. To offset this, the law requires the test and provides punishment for those who

This "hush hush" attitude has been largely responsible for the spread of syphilis. Needless suffering has resulted from the disease to avoid publicity. This atti tude is foolish in the face of this dreaded Realize that the blood test is a priviledge rather than an obligation and let's rid Coffee County of this disease.

For the happy occasion the iving and dining rooms of the Watkins' home had been decor ted with arrangements of hite gladioli and white chryanthemums, interspersed with olumosa and woodwardia fern and white tapers. The alter, improvised between the north windows of the dining room against a background hung with a profusion of southern smilax and banked with woodwardi ern, was brilliantly lighted by candelabra burning twenty our cathedral candles, an flanked on either side by sevenranched candelabra. Centerng the alter was a large baske of white chrysanthemums, tied with hugh bows of broad white satin ribbon and floating streamers. This theme of flowers and ibbon was repeated in the arge bows and streamers tied o the candelabra and in the all cathedral baskets filled with white gladioli, white chrysanthemums and fern which completed the setting at either

A studied simplicity lent impressiveness to the program preceding the double-ring ceremony. Mrs. W. M. Ringsdorf at the piano played "Venetian Love Song" by Nevin, as the introductory number and "To A Wild Rose" by MacDowell while Miss Ann Watkins, sister of the bride, lighted the candles. The couple, unattended, then entered advancing to the alter to the strains of the "Wedding March" from Lohengrin. "Liegestraume by Lizt was played softly while the vows were spoken. Immediately following the ministertrial benediction "The Lord's Prayer", Malotte, was sung by diss Ann Dunaway, and the oung couple turned from the alter to receive the congratulaions of the assembled guests which included only the immediate families and a small num ber of intimate friends. They then left for a honeymoon at points unannounced. The newlyweds have a host of friends in Elba where they will reside following their honeymoon. across the hedge, just across the desk, just across the hall, just across the way, narrow or wide it may be, is a human being who yearns for love. It is generally safe to assume that the people you see every day are lonely people. You may not understand why, but they are lonely. What can you do to help them in their loneliness? That is where the water begins to hit the wheel in applying this lesson to everyday life. In the pioneer days of our country, people were more neighborly, because they were aware of great danger-danger from Indians, dan ger from wild beasts, danger from the wilderness about them. This sense of danger drew them together. Today, with our walled apartments we have lost some sense of inter dependence. That is why we are so lonely. Follow the better sel within you. Penetrate these barriers. Follow after love. And you will be happier as you make your neighbor happy. The Way of Love THE way of love is the way of Christ. "A new commandment I give unto you," said Jesus, "That ye love one another as I have loved

Not until we reach the point that we can look at life through the eyes of love-the eyes of the heart -can we know the joy which comes when we follow the way of love. It may sound very simple. That is the reason why it is so vital. It is the one way up and out for our frightened world. The way of love is the way God wants us to go today and tomorrow.
